

The MAPS Framework

Before you begin, ask yourself these questions:

- What is the central message of my written document or speech?
- Who is my audience? Who will be reading my document or listening to my speech?
- What is the purpose of my document or speech?
- What strategies can I use to communicate my message most effectively?

Start with the Message, Audience, Purpose and Strategy (MAPS) Framework

The MAPS Framework

STRATEGY

1. Writing Strategies

5Cs

CLEAR

- Make deliberate word choices; construct well-formed sentences

CONCISE

- Get to the point

CONCRETE

- Provide concrete details that support the main idea (Thesis)

COHESIVE

- Use signal words, discourse markers, headings & sub-headings to link points logically

COMPLETE

- Answer the 5Ws and 1H questions.
Who? What? When? Where? Why? How?

TARGET THE AUDIENCE

What language is appropriate and relevant for your audience?

What do they know?

What do they not know?

2. Visual Communication Strategies

What type of visuals appeals to the audience?

3. Research Strategies

Would the target audience find your choice of resources credible?

Use the CRAAP test to evaluate your resources:

Currency – The timeliness of the information.

Relevance – The importance of the information for your needs.

Authority – The source of the information.

Accuracy – The reliability, truthfulness and correctness of the information.

Purpose – The reason the information exists.
