Review

- Has your group selected a topic?
- Has each group member identified a different focus area?
 - E.g. Topic – Preserving Singapore Cuisine
 - Student 1's Focus Area: Chilli Crab
 - Student 2's Focus Area: Fish Head Curry
 - Student 3's Focus Area: Hokkien Mee
- Have you researched on your main message and reasons?

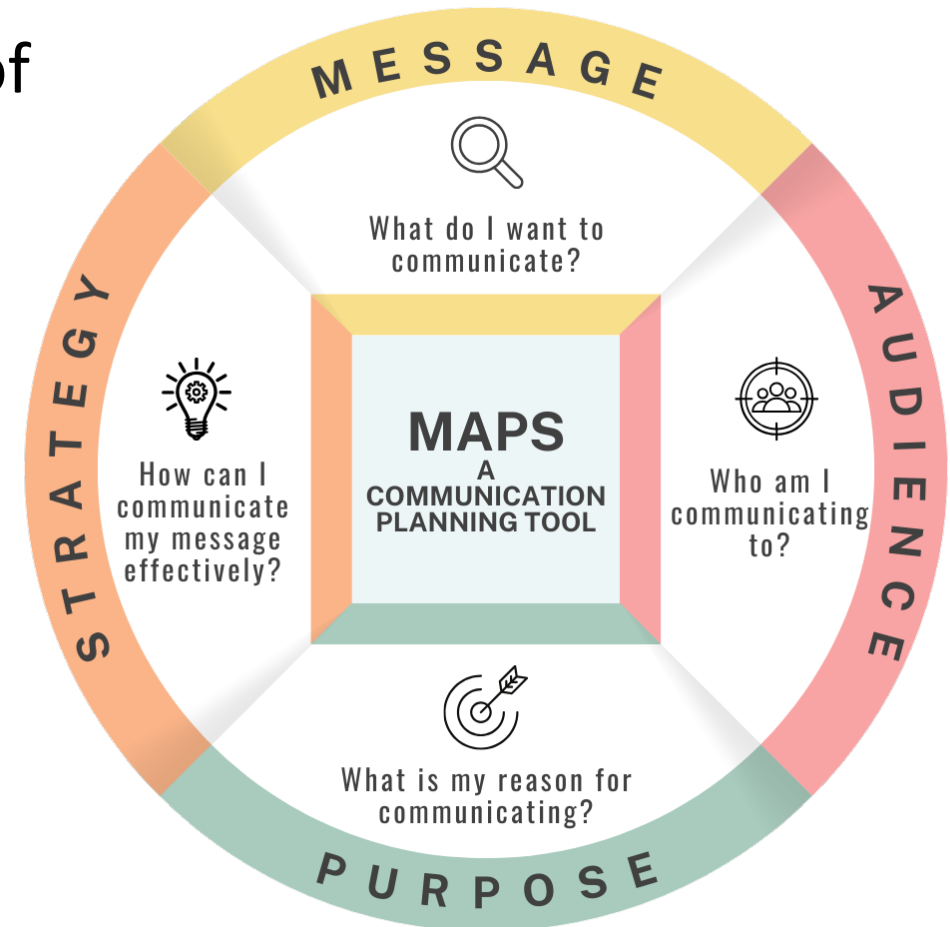

Recap of Week 1

- MAPS analysis: Message, Audience & Purpose
- Analyse the message, audience and purpose of your article

What is the main message
of my article?

Who is my audience?

What is the purpose of my article?

Recap: Audience and Purpose

1. Audience: Who is reading your article?

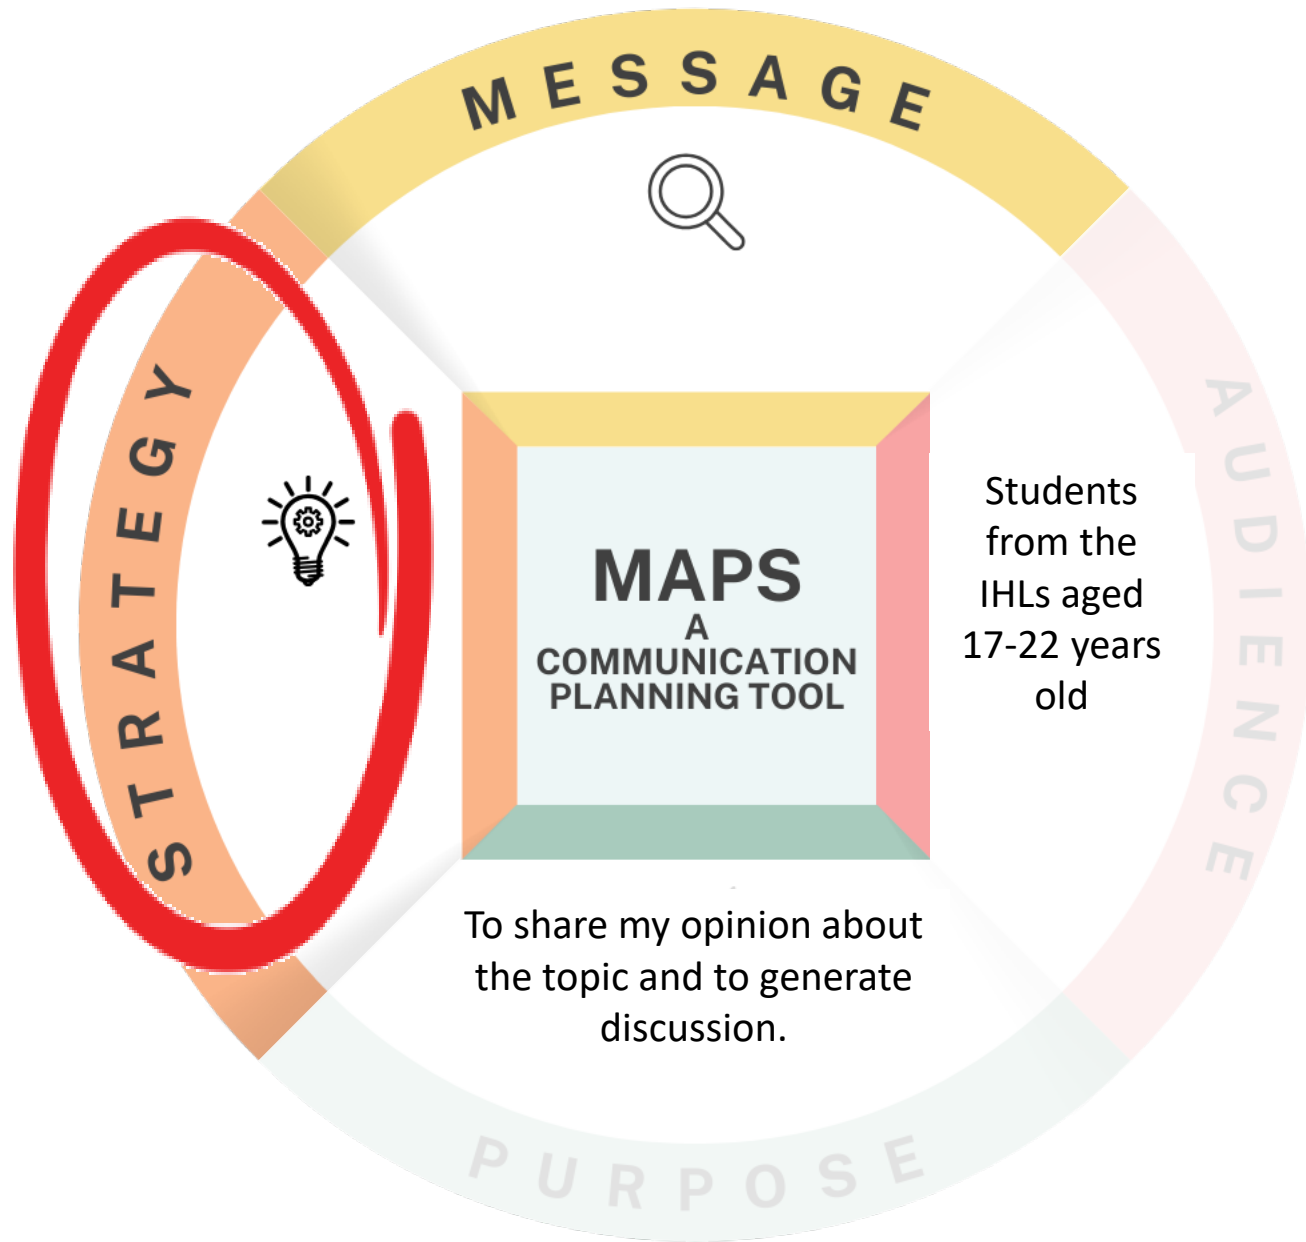

- Students from the Institutes of Higher Learning (IHLs).
- Aged 17-22 years old (Gen Z)

2. Purpose: What is the purpose of the article?

- To share my opinion about the topic and to generate discussion.

Strategy

What are some strategies to communicate your message effectively?

- Research Strategies
- Presentation Strategies

This week: Research Strategy

How can I communicate my message effectively using credible research?

A close-up, slightly angled view of a computer keyboard. The keys are primarily dark grey, with some yellow keys visible, including a prominent yellow arrow key in the lower right foreground. The lighting creates soft shadows, emphasizing the three-dimensional shape of the keys.

Research Strategies

Do you remember CRAAP?

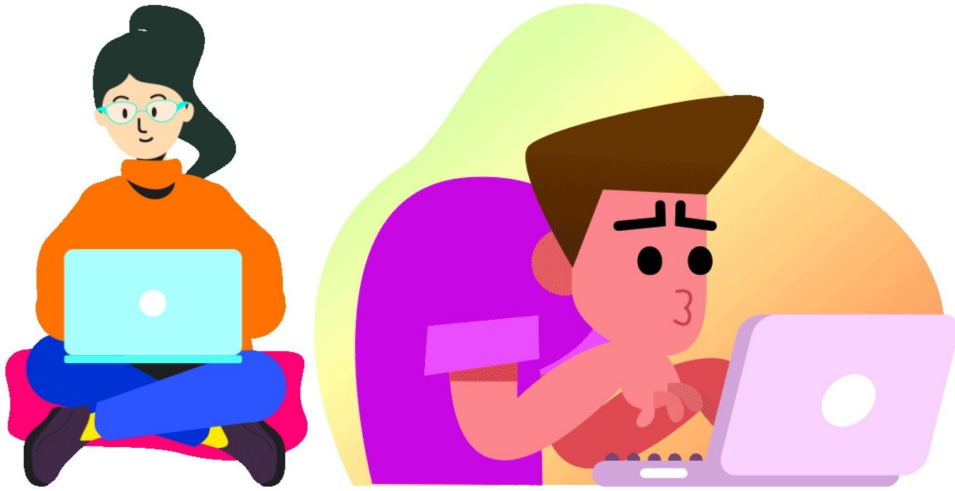

Research Strategies

CRAAP

- Currency
- Relevance
- Authority
- Accuracy
- Purpose

C Currency	 - Do you need current, historical information or both? - When was the information published? - Has the information been revised or updated?
R Relevance	 - Is the information related to my topic? - Who is the intended audience? - Is the information at an appropriate level?
A Authority	 - Who is the author or publisher? - What are the author's affiliations? - Are there any contact details?
A Accuracy	 - Is the information free from errors? - Has it been reviewed by peers? - Is there supporting evidence?
P Purpose	 - What is the purpose of the information? - Is there bias? - Is the information fact, opinion or propaganda?

Research Strategies

In the past week, what reliable source or sources have you been reading to get information for your article?

- Share one source with your group members.
- Provide a justification for the source based on Currency, Relevance, Authority, Accuracy and/or Purpose.

Presentation of Message (ProM) (20%)

Present only the Main Message and Reasons

1. The presentations will be face-to-face, in class, during your ECOMM lesson in Week 5.
 2. The analysis must be based on the topic selected by each group.
 3. Each speaker in the group has 3 minutes to present.
 4. Keep to the time limit. No extension will be given.
 5. Refer to the next slides for tips on giving a face-to-face presentation.

Oral Presentation

Clarity

- Share your points in a clear and easy to understand manner.
- Organise your thoughts logically, using direct language, and be concise.
- Articulate properly to be understood.
- Avoid mumbling.

Oral Presentation

Volume

- Project your voice: Speak loudly enough for everyone in the audience to hear you clearly.
- Remember, we are listening to your presentation to understand your ideas.
- If we can't hear you, we can't understand you.

Oral Presentation

Timing
& Pace

- Practise your speech - Did you complete presenting (without rushing) within the 3 minutes?
- Speak at a calm and measured pace.
- Avoid delivering your presentation in a rushed manner.

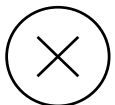

Oral Presentation

Body
Language &
Eye Contact

- Face the audience.
- Maintain eye-contact.
- Maintain an open posture: Don't cross your arms or put your hands in your pocket.
- Stand with feet apart in line with your shoulders.
- Look confident.

MAPS Presentation

How do I overcome my fear of public speaking?

- Know Your Topic: Understand your topic well to stay focused and confident.
- Practise: Rehearse your presentation multiple times to become comfortable with the content and pace.
- Get Organised: Use the template, keep your content concise, and check that it aligns with the marking scheme.

How do I overcome my fear of public speaking?

- Breathing Technique: Use deep breathing exercises before presenting to calm nerves and reduce anxiety.
- Focus on Content: Concentrate on delivering valuable information rather than worrying about the audience.

Recap of Strategy

- Ensure that you use credible research to support your message.
- Check the Currency, Relevance, Authority, Accuracy and Purpose of your sources.
- Practise good presentation skills to communicate your message effectively.

Group Discussion (ProM)

Group Discussion & Review

Message & Reasons

- Share your message and reasons with your group members.
- Using the Peer Feedback form, evaluate your group members' message.

Presentation of Message (ProM) (20%) Week 5

Use the Presentation of Message (ProM) template.

Present your message and reasons.

You will be graded individually.

Each group member has a maximum of 3 minutes.

You must be in appropriate attire for the presentation.

ECOMM's ProM Feedback Chatbot

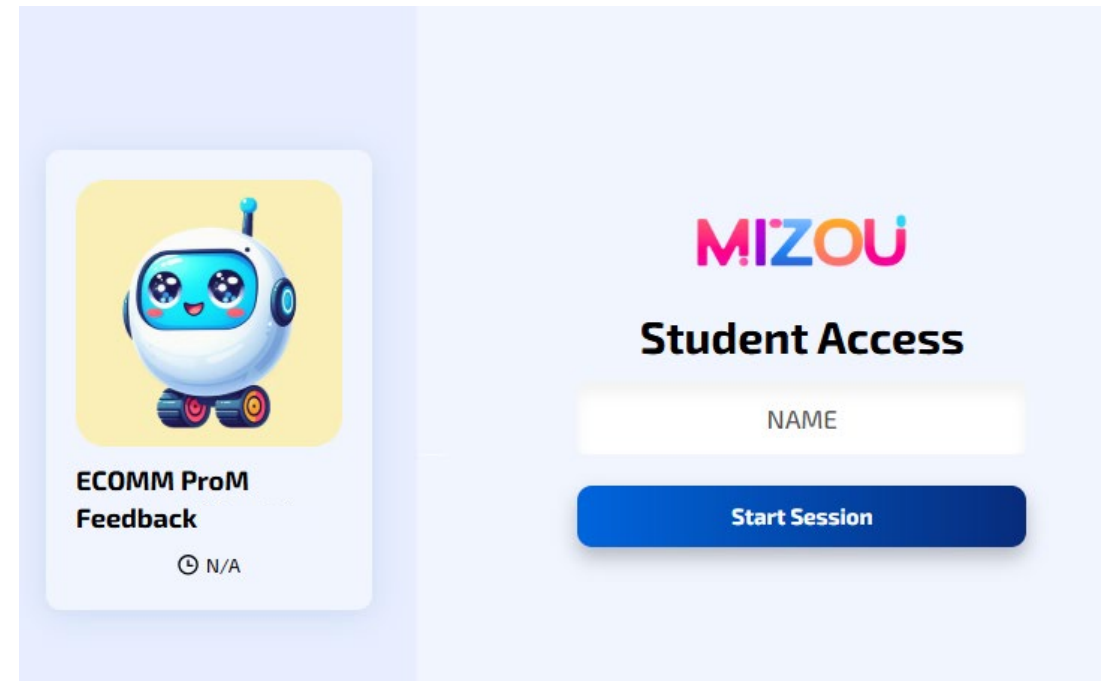

AI Assistant using Mizou platform designed to provide additional feedback on your assignment drafts.

What it can do:

- Provide feedback and help identify areas for improvement

What it CANNOT do:

- Replace your tutor's guidance
- Rewrite for you
- Check word count, hyperlinks or formatting

ECOMM's ProM Feedback Chatbot

How to use it

1. Have your draft ready to copy and paste your work into the chatbot.
2. Click on the link to access the relevant chatbot on Mizou.
3. Type your name to begin chatting.
4. Follow the chatbot's instructions to input your work.
5. Review the feedback and ask for clarification if needed.
6. Bookmark the unique link you're using now so you can return to the same chat next time.
7. DO NOT copy any of the chatbot's writing as that would be plagiarism.

ECOMM's ProM Feedback Chatbot

How to use it

- Week 4: AFTER one round of Tutor's feedback for your ProM draft, the chatbot will be available in LMS.
- If the chatbot tells you something that contradicts what your Tutor has said, ALWAYS defer to your Tutor's instructions.
