Good job!

Now, what's the first step to add visuals? Look for high quality visuals.

1. Go to TP Library's site by clicking on the blue button.
2. Visit the recommended sites to obtain license-free images.

Include a Relevant Visual to Support your Article

This picture is taken from The National Parks Board.

It is appropriate as it shows the building of the Heritage Museum.

Revealing its history in a museum

The Singapore Botanic Gardens is 163 years old. In 1859, the Agri-Horticultural Society transformed a 23-hectare land at Tanglin into a garden. Due to its historical significance, it houses its very own museum. The museum pays tribute to the role of the SBG in Singapore's history.

The building of the Heritage Museum was the office and laboratory of the garden's director Professor Eric Holttum, who developed the orchid breeding technique that resulted in outstanding hybrids. Visitors can experience the history of the SBG through multimedia exhibits. The history of the SBG, which can be experienced in the museum, is one reason to visit it.
